Bad Whiskey Causes East End Young Men to Get a Trifle Gay—Officers Go After Them.

Deputy Sheriff W. S. Drye, and Chief of Police B. D. Carter, of Stanford, went to Crab Orchard Tuesday morning with warrants for James, Leonard, John and Yewell Hopkins and Blain Skidmore, who were charged by prominent citizens of the East End capital with "taking the town" there Saturday.

According to reports brought here by men from the East End Monday, the Hopkins boys, pretty well saturated with bad whiskey, rode into town from their homes out in the Green Briar section, near Dripping Springs, and began creating a disturbance in town. When Marshal Hamilton arrested one of them, the others, forcibly took him away from the officer, took the officer prisoner themselves and threatened to lock him up in the city calaboose if he became obstreperous. After fighting around the corner of Main and Stanford streets a while, they got in their wagon with the one whom they had rescued from the officer, and went home. Their father Joe Hopkins, and their brothers, George and Joe, are said not to have been mixed up in the affair in any way, and to have done everything in their power to quiet the troublesome fellows and get them out of town. The father is a respected and quiet citizen of the East End. One of the boys is said to have been the man who slew the marshal at Berea some time ago and is to be tried for murder in circuit court at Richmond this week.

Several of them were working in Gus Geiszl's road force last week, and they knocked off work Saturday about noon. One report said that they got in eight quarts of whiskey Friday night and when they quit work Saturday, had put most of it away so that they are feeling its effects considerably by the time they got to town.

Citizens swore out warrants for the men at once, and an effort was made to arrest some of them at the road works Monday, but when they saw officers coming, they took to the brush. Deputy Sheriff Drye and Officer Carter hope to land them today. One of the Hopkins boys, called "Little Joe," lost his home and two little daughters by fire a short time ago. He was not concerned in the trouble at Crab Orchard in any way.

LONDON CASHIER GUILTY

Says Jury in Federal Court—To Be Sentenced This Week.

London, Ky., May 8.—The jury in the case of the United States against McCalla Fitzgerald, a former cashier of the First National Bank, which failed here in April, 1914, brought in a verdict convicting him on the thirty-two counts in the two indictments. He was charged with misappropriation of the bank's funds, making false entries on the bank's books, embezzlement, and making false reports to the Controller of the Treasury. The case had been on trial all week and attracted much interest on account of the prominence of the accused. After the jury reported Judge Cochran left on the 4 o'clock train for Maysville. Mr. Fitzgerald will not be sentenced until this week, during the regular term of court.

Judge Cochran announced before leaving for Maysville that he would hold a term of court commencing June 26 to try the case against W. B. Catching, former president of the bank. Catching is under indictment on several counts.

FORM AUTO PARTNERSHIP

H. C. Carpenter and E. B. Campbell have formed a partnership for the sale of Oakland automobiles in Lincoln county. They will also buy and sell used cars of various makes and with liberal advertising plan to build up a large business. They delivered this week an Overland Six to A. W. Carpenter, near Moreland. This is a very handsome car and attracted much attention on the streets here.

WHOOPIING COUGH

"When my daughter had whooping cough she coughed so hard at one time that she had hemorrhage of the lungs. I was terribly alarmed about her condition. Seeing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so highly recommended, I got her a bottle and it relieved the cough at once. Before she had finished two bottles of this remedy she was entirely well," writes Mrs. S. F. Grimes, Crooksville, Ohio. Obtainable everywhere.

FIRST DEFEAT OF SEASON

Deaf Boys' Nine Win Over Stanford High By 5 to 1

The pitcher goes to the well once too often. The Stanford High School baseball team's splendid record of unbroken victories all spring was rudely shattered Friday. The ball team of the School for the Deaf walked off the field at Danville that afternoon by the score of 5 to 1. The tale is soon told: Stanford was up against some real pitching and was only able to nick Miller, on the slab for the mutes, for three safeties. The home team found Bill Reinhart to their liking, however, and early in the game piled over their runs. The derrick had to be applied to the kid pitcher, and Joe Embry, who is the most versatile player on the team, went into the box, and held the mutes to only one hit for the remainder of the game. Embry showed high class as a twirler and will undoubtedly be used in future games.

The strong Eastern State Normal team of Richmond plays here this afternoon, and a hot combat will undoubtedly be seen. Stanford nosed out this team at Richmond several days ago by hard work. The score at Danville:

James Williams, alias "Roadsport," a negro, charged with complicity in the murder of engineer Joe Gibson, entered a plea of guilty to a charge of murder in the first degree at Catlettsburg, and received a sentence of life imprisonment. "Roadsport" claims that "Black Texas" who has already paid the penalty for his part in the crime with his life in the electric chair, fired the fatal shot.

How Mrs. Harrod Got Rid of Her Stomach Trouble.

"I suffered with stomach trouble for years and tried everything I heard of, but the only relief I got was temporary until last spring I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and procured a bottle of them at our drug store. I got immediate relief from that dreadful heaviness after eating and from pain in the stomach," writes Mrs. Linda Harrod Fort Wayne, Ind. Obtainable everywhere.

WARM CONTEST IN LANCASTER

Saturday Over Election of School Trustees—Little Interest Here—C. O. Going Forward.

Very little interest was manifested in the election of two school trustees in Stanford Saturday. There were only two candidates for the two vacancies on the local school board W. B. McKinney and W. C. Shanks and they were re-elected without opposition, receiving all the votes cast.

Hot Race in Lancaster.

One of the hottest elections ever held at Lancaster was conducted Saturday, it was reported by Gardner visitors at Stanford court day. Dr. J. A. Amon was re-elected a member of the board without opposition, but Dr. W. M. Elliott defeated J. W. Elmore for re-election by a vote of about 150 to 50, it was reported. The issue is said to have been the retention of the present superintendent of schools there, Prof. Kinnear, Dr. Elliott being opposed to his re-election as head of the Lancaster schools, it is said. The full board in Lancaster is now composed of Dr. J. B. Kinnaird, J. A. Beazley, S. D. Cochran, Dr. Elliott and Dr. Amons. Quite a number of ladies are said to have voted in the election at Lancaster for the first time.

Going Ahead at Crab Orchard.

At Crab Orchard there were three candidates for two places on the school board, W. E. Perkins and H. G. Skiles being re-elected, with Pate King running third. The trustees of the East End school are all progressive business men and are proud of the institution they have in charge. They have just decided to make the Crab Orchard High School a high school in the full sense of the term and will hereafter have a four year term in the high school instead of a two-year term. This will be a great improvement. The old faculty has been re-elected with Prof. U. G. Hatfield at the head of the institution where he has done fine work. Miss Bessie Moore of this city, who has been teaching in the fifth and sixth grades has been promoted to the seventh and eighth grades and another teacher will be added to the faculty to take care of the lower grades.

LATEST WAR NEWS.

The American Government has accepted Germany's promise to bring her submarine warfare under the limitations of the recognized rules of international law as insisted upon by the United States, and Washington now relies upon a "Scrupulous execution of the altered policy." Germany is told in the note just forwarded to Berlin that the United States Government cannot entertain a suggestion that respect for the rights of American citizens on the high seas should in any way be made contingent upon the conduct of any other Government affecting the rights of neutrals and noncombatants.

While the pursuit of Villa bandits who raided Glenn Springs, Tex., was continued yesterday, the conference at El Paso between Gens. Scott and Funston and Obregon and Amador, Carranza representatives, ended without an agreement being reached last night, and will be continued.

An entire system of trenches on the slope of Hill 304 has been captured by the Germans and the French in the fighting suffered heavy casualties. One thousand two hundred and eighty of their soldiers and fifty officers were taken prisoners. The French have been strengthened by the arrival of Australian and New Zealand troops.

MAY COURT DAY.

Only a fair crowd was in town on Monday, May county court day, as the weather was so fine, it afforded the farmers splendid opportunity to catch up with their work. Trading in all sorts of livestock was a little off also. There were about 500 cattle on the market and some extra good which sold up to 8-14 cents a pound but many were taken back unsold. Several buyers were here for army horses and mules and secured about a dozen from $100 to $125 a head. The principal topic of conversation among Lincolnites was the bond issue election to be held next Saturday. Considerable opposition seems to have developed to the question and predictions were more generally made Monday that it will be beaten than that it will win.

Rev. Bowling will preach at the Christian church at Hall's Gap the third Sunday in this month. All are invited.

LUNCHEON TO BOOST FAIR

To Be Held by Chamber of Commerce at Princess Friday Night.

The Chamber of Commerce will hold a luncheon at the Princess on next Friday night at 6.30 o'clock. Everybody will be asked to attend this meeting, whether they are members or not. The K. of P. lodge will attend in a body and the general subject for discussion will be the 1916 K. of P. Fair—the biggest Fair Stanford has ever seen. Are you interested in promoting the agricultural interests? Do you believe in raising the standard of hogs, horses, cattle, etc.? Do you believe in encouraging the women to do better needle work, bake better cakes, can better jam? Are you a poultry fancier? Do you enjoy seeing the children ride the Flying Dutchman, etc.? If so, you will attend this luncheon—you will be there to help co-operate in this great movement. The Chamber of Commerce is going to lend a hand, and will do everything in its power to make this Fair the Biggest and Best Fair Lincoln county has ever had. Are you going to do your part? The plates will cost 50 cents per. If you are going to be there, notify Jay Howenstine before Friday morning in order that your plate may be reserved.

The program for the evening is as follows:

Opening Remarks—J. C. McClary, President.
"Our Fair—Your Fair"—Col. Sam T. Harris.

"The Fair—From the Merchant's Standpoint."—Wm. Severance.

"The Fair—From the Farmer's Standpoint."—Dr. W. B. O'Bannon.

"What Can I Do to Co-operate?"—Wm. H. Shanks.

REV. HOERBE ACCEPTS CALL

To the Ottenheim and Gruenheim Churches to Succeed Bosshart.

Rev. Anton Hoerbe, of Dayton, O., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the German Reformed churches at Ottenheim and Gruenheim. Rev. Hoerbe will fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. J. G. Bosshart, who has gone to Far Rockaway, N. Y., to take the pastorate of a congregation there. Rev. Hoerbe preached at the Gruenheim church Sunday morning and at Ottenheim Sunday afternoon and greatly pleased the congregations at both places. He is a young man of fine address, a good talker and consecrated to the Master's Cause, and will undoubtedly make many warm friends when he moves here within about 10 days to make his permanent home.

JURY UNABLE TO AGREE.

In the trials of Will Lee and Will Gaines, colored, charged with being present when a gambling game was going on in Lee's house in Macks-ville last week, the jury which tried them in the city court was unable to agree. Both Joe Hayden and Charley Baughman, who engaged in the shooting affray in Lee's house were held to the grand jury under the charge against them.

CREAMERY BROKE RECORD.

The Stanford Creamery broke all records for butter making one day last week when 534 pounds of the good yellow stuff were turned out at one churning. The Creamery is a great thing for the housewives of this section and is doing splendidly under its present careful management.

News of the Churches

The Beulah Walker Circle has decided not to have its picture show Tuesday evening, as at first contemplated.

Presbyterian Church: Mid-week services on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock—The Deity of Jesus Christ. A hearty welcome awaits you.

Rev. Homer W. Carpenter, of Shelbyville, was nominated for president of the Kentucky Christian Endeavor Union at the convention in Lexington.

Dr. J. A. Trostle, of Salvisa, will deliver the Commencement address for Daughters College at the Harrodsburg Presbyterian church on

232. Dr. Trostle was for some time Synodical Evangelist of the Presbyterian church, but resigned a short time ago to accept the pastorate of the Salvisa and Providence churches. He is a splendid speaker. Harrodsburg Herald.

LAME BACK.

Lame back is usually due to rheumatism of the muscles of the back. Hard working people are most likely to suffer from it. Relief may be had by massaging the back with Chamberlain's Liniment two or three times a day. Try it. Obtainable everywhere.

GEORGE BOHON

DIES IN MERCER

Brother of Dr. Tom Bohon of West End and One of Wealthiest and Leading Citizens of This Part

George Bohon one of the wealthiest citizens of Mercer county, well known in Lincoln county, died at his home in Harrodsburg at 1 o'clock Monday morning. Mr. Bohon was 65 years of age, and his death was caused by acute indigestion. He had been in poor health for three weeks. Soon after his arrival home from Atlanta, two weeks ago, he was taken East, where he consulted physicians. It was decided that an operation was not immediately imperative, and he returned home. Since his arrival in Harrodsburg he believed he was improving. He is survived by his widow, his daughter, Mrs. John H. Rain, and two sons, Davis and Hanly Bohons, both of whom are in business in Harrodsburg. He was born in Mercer county and lived there all his life.

Mr. Bohon was a member of the Christian church. Mrs. Scott Hudson, of Atlanta, is a sister and Roney Bohon, of Decatur, Ill., Dr. Tom Bohon, of Hustonville, and Will Bohon of Gadsden, Ala., are brothers. Mr. Bohon was president of the Bohon Buggy Manufacturing Company, and in this business he amassed quite a fortune, which he invested in Mercer and Harrodsburg enterprises. He was president of the Mercer National Bank, a member of the School Board and was closely identified with numerous smaller business enterprises.

For years he took a great interest in the Mercer county colony of the Society of Shakers, whose ranks were being rapidly thinned. He made many fast friends among the Shakers, and five years ago, in consideration of his caring for the seven or eight remaining members of the colony for the balance of their lives, he was deeded one-half of the many acres of rich soil owned by the society. This he was to have outright upon the death of the last member of the colony. The remainder is owned by Dr. William Pennybaker, a member of the colony, whose nephew, Elliott Pennybaker, is an attorney of Louisville. Since Mr. Bohon made this agreement all members of the colony, except four, have died. His share of the property is variously estimated at from one-half to three-quarters of a million dollars.

MRS. ALLEN BALLOU DEAD.

Relatives here received news late last week of the death at Burnside, of Mrs. Allen Ballou, wife of a brother of Rev. Joseph Ballou of this city. Mrs. Ballou was about 68 years of age and was a noble Christian woman, respected and beloved by all who knew her. Besides her husband, she is survived by eight children, four sons, and four daughters: Mrs. George Thomas, Mrs. W. F. Brogden, Miss Lou Ballou, of Burnside, and Mrs. E. P. Hiett, of Somerset; W. T. Ballou, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Robert Ballou, of Dayton; Walter Ballou, of Colorado, and D. W. Ballou, of Burnside. Mrs. Ballou belonged to the Christian church. Funeral services were held at her home in Burnside Saturday, conducted by Rev. Bell. Her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Tateville.

DR. GRIDER DIES AT MCKINNEY.

Dr. Frank Grider, a beloved physician of McKinney, died at his home there last Friday after a long illness. Paralysis was directly the cause of his demise, but he had been an invalid for several years. Dr. Grider was about 48 years of age and was esteemed and beloved by all who knew him. He had been for years a faithful and consecrated member of the Christian church. His wife and four children survive. Funeral services were conducted Saturday at the Baptist church at McKinney, by Rev. D. M. Walker, of Stanford, after which the mortal remains of this good man were laid to rest in the McKinney cemetery.

MRS. WASH COOK DEAD.

The remains of Mrs. Wash Cook were brought here from Detroit, Mich., Saturday afternoon and taken out to Highland, where at Mt. Moriah church Sunday they were laid to rest, after services conducted by Rev. Wright and Mr. J. C. McClary. Deceased was 46 years old and died Friday of cancer of the stomach. She was Miss Cerena Horton of the Highland section and went to Detroit with her husband and son, Guy Cook, some years ago. They both accompanied the body here. Besides these survivors there are four brothers and a sister, all of whom attended the burial. They are: Messrs. Mart Albert and Joe Horton, of Louisville, and Everett Horton, of New Albany, Ind., and Mrs. Dorothy Allen, of Louisville. Mrs. Cook was an excellent woman and her taking away has caused universal sorrow in the community she lived so long.

WIDOW OF DR. HUNN DEAD

Mrs. Dulcinea Hunn, relict of Dr. Will Hunn, died in Louisville Friday after a protracted illness of a complication of troubles. The body was brought to the home of her son, George Hunn, at Moreland, and was laid to rest in the Hustonville cemetery Tuesday after services at the Christian church at Hustonville by Rev. A. H. Baugh. The pallbearers were her six grandsons, Cleve Dunn, Clarence Dunn, Eugene Dunn, Geo. Dunn, Boyce and Carl Hunn. Mrs. Hunn lived for many years in the West End of this county, but moved to Louisville a number of years ago. She was a devout member of the Christian church and her friends included all who knew her. Her death has cast a gloom over the section in which she lived so long and is a severe blow not only to the relatives but to the many friends who loved her also. The children who survive and who have the unbounded sympathy of their many friends are: Mrs. Mary Dunn, Hustonville, Mr. A. M. Hunn, of this city, Mr. George Hunn, of Moreland, Mr. Frank Hunn, of the West End, Mr. Allen Hunn and Miss Elizabeth Hunn, of Louisville, and Mrs. Grant Smith, of Springfield, O. A very large crowd attended the burial and many beautiful floral designs were brought by loving friends. Miss Katherine Warriner sang very sweetly "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" at the burial.

BIG SALE HERE WEDNESDAY.

Much interest was manifested here Monday among farmers and stockmen in the big Embury sale which will be held here Wednesday, May 10, tomorrow, to wind up the estate of the late S. J. Embury, Sr. Stockmen and buyers from out of town all expressed a desire to get back here for the big sale, and as the weather promises to be fine a record breaking crowd is expected, and some fine prices should be realized, as the offerings are all high class. This sale will provide a splendid opportunity to buyers of live stock. A complete list of what will go under the hammer will be found in the large advertisement on the last page of this paper.

HUSTONVILLE COMMENCEMENT

Commencement exercises of the Hustonville Graded and High School will be held this week. The annual Recital will be Thursday evening, and formal commencement exercises Friday evening. Very attractive programs have been arranged, which will be printed in Friday's I. J.

IMPORTANT TO TAXPAYERS

Before you vote on the bond issue Saturday, read carefully the following:

The present bonded debt of Lincoln county is $35,800.00, which bears interest at the rate of 4% per annum, amounting to $1,432.00 interest each year. (This debt consists of $8,000.00 of turnpike bonds and $31,500.00 of Court House bonds nearing a total of $39,500.00 with $3,700.00 in the sinking fund leaving a net bonded debt of $35,800.00.) Of the debt remaining $8,000.00 is the residue of the $52,000.00 bond issue of 1898, for the purchase of pikes. The assessed value of property of Lincoln county, amounts to $9,000,000.00, the levy for road purposes is 25 cents on the $100.00, which amounts to an annual tax of $22,500.00 and the State aid is 5 cents on the $100.00, which amounts to $4,500.00, making a total of $27,000.00 available annually to be spent on the roads of Lincoln county to maintain, repair and ditch same and build, maintain and repair bridges and culverts and paying interest and creating a sinking fund.

The proposed bond issue is for $200,000.00. It is not known what interest they can bear, but say they are floated at 4%, then there would be $8,000.00 interest on those bonds and $5,000.00 each year to be set aside before there could be any money spent to maintain the pikes and bridges.

In the past five years the average expenditure on the roads of Lincoln county has been $25,000.00 annually. This would leave for annual maintenance, the sum of $13,680.00, or the other would reduce the usual amount of money spent on our roads to one half for maintaining them.

The Fiscal Court only has the right to increase taxes for road purposes 20 cents on the $100.00. Adv.-2t "TAXPAYERS."

BADLY HURT BY MAD BULL

Col. D. R. Moore Seriously Injured But Is Now Sitting Up and On Road to Recovery.

Col. D. R. Moore, one of the best known farmers and stock raisers of the Shelby City section, of this county, was severely wounded by an infuriated bull a short time ago, and is only able to sit up a little at times now, though he is rapidly regaining his strength. For a time it was feared that his injuries were very serious. He was found by a colored man employed by Mr. Sam Bishop, in an unconscious condition in a field, the brute, though having no horns, having severely butted him, and trampled him with his sharp hoofs. Mr. Moore had gone into a field to separate the bull from a bunch of steers. The bull was of the short-horn type, which is not usually fierce like a Jersey. Before he could defend himself or flee, the animal attacked him, struck him down, and Mr. Moore says that he remembers nothing more of the brute's attack upon him, after that. The negro hand heard him groaning and went to his assistance. For some time he was unconscious, and it was agreed by all that he had a very narrow escape. Although not a young man, Mr. Moore has a splendid constitution, and it has greatly assisted in pulling him through the fearful experience.

DR. HARVIELLE DIES IN DENVER

Prominent Physician Married Former Stanford Young Lady.

Dr. Charles P. Harvielle, who married Miss Isabella Bailey, daughter of Dr. Steele Bailey, for years one of the best known physicians of this county, now in Utah, died in Denver, Colorado last week. The Salt Lake City Tribune, under his picture had the following notice of his death:

Dr. Charles Poplin Harvielle, assistant county physician of Salt Lake county, died yesterday in Denver from an affection of the throat, after a long illness. Funeral services will be held tomorrow in Denver, with interment in Crownhill cemetery.

Dr. Harvielle, who was 41 years of age, was one of the best known physicians of the city, and was greatly beloved for his high character. He was born in Arcadia, Mo., the son of Simeon R. and Martha Jane House Harvielle, his father a Tennesseean, his mother a native of North Carolina. After attending the public schools of his native city he studied at Washington University, St. Louis, Mo., from 1896 until April 14 1899, being graduated with the degree of M. D.

In 1901 Dr. Harvielle married Miss Isabella Bailey of Stanford, Ky. The widow and one daughter, Isabella, survive.

Dr. Harvielle came to Salt Lake in November, 1904, and up to the time of his last illness practiced his profession here and in Eureka. He had suffered for several years from his throat affection and made several trips to Denver for treatment by an eminent specialist.

Dr. Harvielle was a Democrat, an active worker for his party. He was a member of Salt Lake lodge No. 85 B. P. O. E., Salt Lake aerie No. 67, Fraternal Order of Eagles, and also a member of the Loyal Order of Moose and the Knights of Pythias. Actively interested in outdoor sports, Dr. Harvielle was for several years physician for the Salt Lake baseball club and in 1914 was president of the Murray club of the Union Association.

In January, 1915, he was appointed assistant county physician of Salt Lake county.

TWO BIG ONES.

Two portly gentlemen were at the court sales yesterday mingling with the crowd. They were Ira Moser, the Milledgeville merchant prince, who tips the beam at 368 and Jeff Stigall, an East End farmer and stock trader, who weighs 350. They made our corpulent townsman, M. S. Baughman, look like the proverbial "30 cents" in size.

Best Thing for a Bilious Attack

On account of my confinement in the printing office I have for years been a chronic sufferer from indigestion and liver trouble. A few weeks ago I had an attack that was so severe that I was not able to go to the case for two days. Failing to get any relief from any other treatment, I took three of Chamberlain's Tablets and the next day I felt like a new man," writes H. C. Bailey, Editor Carolina News, Chapin, S. C. Obtainable everywhere.
